Mr. Paul Gotthold
U. S. Environmental Protection Agency
Region III
841 Chestnut Building
Mail Code 3HW80
Philadelphia, PA 19107

Dear Mr. Gotthold:

On, or about February 1, 1996, Bayway Refining Company (BRC), a subsidiary of Tosco Corporation, will complete the purchase of selected BP Oil assets in the Northeast. The assets include the Marcus Hook Refinery (Marcus Hook, PA) and various terminals, tank farms, and pipelines in Pennsylvania, Maryland, New Jersey, and Massachusetts. With the ownership change, we will be effecting various permit changes and transfers. Among these activities is the establishment of EPA Identification Numbers for the various facilities.

Thank you for your quick response in issuing a new Identification Number for the Marcus Hook Refinery. The following additional purchased facilities lie within EPA Region III:

Pennsylvania Locations:

- 1) Philadelphia Terminal, Philadelphia, PA
- 2) Chelsea Pipeline Station and Tank Farm, Aston, PA
- 3) Sinking Spring Terminal, Sinking Spring, PA
- 4) Mechanicsburg Terminal, Mechanicsburg, PA
- 5) Duncansville Terminal, Duncansville, PA

Maryland Locations:

- 1) Baltimore Terminal, Baltimore, MD

As we have previously discussed on the phone, please issue a new EPA Identification Number to cover BRC's hazardous waste generation activities associated with each of the facilities, as defined on the attached "Notification of Regulated Waste Activity" forms. The issuance of a new EPA Identification Number brings a clear delineation to BRC as the new owner operating the facility. Furthermore, BP Oil may be conducting remedial activities at some of these locations which may be generating hazardous wastes. The responsibility for ongoing remedial activities will remain with BP Oil.
